IN APPRECIATION

My everlasting thanks and affection to every member of the family who were so willing to answer my many questions, visit cemeteries, and do numerous other missions so that a genealogy account could be formed.

A special "Thank you" to Florence Burry Fairchild, Ruth Burry Tate, and Laura Barth Thew for their undying efforts.

Phyllis Scott Burrey

Jacob nicknamed "Swiss Burry" and wife Barbara arrived in the United States sometime after 1819, but before the birth of son Abraham in 1821. A bit of confusion on the part of the writer was formed when reading the personal census of 1840. It showed Jacob had given Germany as his birthplace. Although he spoke German language, common in both Germany and Switzerland, transactions made by him read land of birth, Switzerland. Leonard Burry, Pittsburg, Pa. now deceased had proof that his Great Grandfather Jacob was born in Berne, Switzerland. The only conclusion can possibly be an error was made on the census report of 1840.

Jacob and Barbara raised their family of sons and perhaps daughters although none can be located in Butler Co. Pa. and in later years, Beaver County, Pa.

As more emigrants moved into Beaver Co. Pa., it became necessary to build a church. Thirty families organized the United Evangelical Protestant St. John's Church commonly called "Burry" church. The affiliations were Lutheran, The Reformed, and the United Evangelical combined. The year 1835 an acre of ground was purchased from Jacob Burry for the sum of $10.00. Logs were to be furnished by the members from their respective farms. Until the building was completed in June 1836, church services were held at the home of Jacob Burry. Rev. E. Winter was elected as pastor. By 1856, Burry Church was found inadequate to hold its many members. After considerable disappointments, a new brick church, cost $3,000.00, was dedicated May 29, 1859.

At present, the third church building is standing dedicated Nov. 18, 1928. "BURRY CHURCH", New Sewickley Township, Beaver County, R. R. #1, Rochester, Pa.

There are no records of Jacob and Barbara's deaths. Their generations march on, grow and spread over the world forming our BIRTHRIGHT!

(Jacob Burry, Jr. made a land transaction with Henry Burry in 1890 which leads me to think he was Henry's grandson)

Finding facts on ancestors many years deceased, proved to be a very challenging job. After considerable time the jigsaw puzzle pieces fell into place forming the following picture of our family; Jacob and Mary Ann Carr Burrey.

Jacob came to America with his family while a small child. Sometime later, he met and married Mary Ann Carr an 18 year old French girl. Mary Ann had traveled to America alone with considerable unhappiness in her heart. A quarrel had taken place with her father because of a forbidden trip to a protestant church. After the knowledge of her deed had been found out, the father; of strong Catholic belief; punished her severely. Mary Ann did not feel the punishment was just so she disassociated her family, sailed to America, where Jacob and her life began together.

Jacob was a small, energetic, fast moving man. His occupation was glassblower and a farmer. After Jacob and Mary Ann's marriage, they began moving westward having children along the way. We do not know the reason for this move westward than rumors. It has been said the elder Jacob disowned his son because of his marriage to Mary Ann. Also the lust for gold may have been the reason or perhaps rich farm ground was the answer. This we will never know. We do know, Jacob and Mary Ann settled near LaRue, Ohio around 1856 and lived there until after the middle 1860's. Jacob then sold the farm, his beautiful matched sets of horses and rigs, and moved to Illinois. Jacob III and bride also went to Illinois. After settling at Martinsville, Illinois, they started raising hogs. Disease struck the hogs, causing Jacob complete bankruptcy. Jacob was growing old by then and with this failure settling upon him, he passed away at Martinsville, Illinois in 1879. Mary Ann did not return to Ohio until the year 1881. Again tragedy struck! Mary Ann contracted typhoid fever during the trip and with the help of sons George and John, succeeded in reaching the log home of daughter Rhoda at LaRue, Ohio. Shortly after Mary Ann's arrival, Rhoda gave birth to baby, Mabel. Mary Ann and baby, Mabel are buried side by side after sharing the same disease.
